

CRRSAA/HEERF* II and ARP/HEERF* III Funds
(Higher Education Emergency Relief Funds)
Quarterly Reporting Ending March 31, 2021

NOTE: Revised 1/6/2022 to combine HEERF II and HEERF II quarterly reporting

The Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA)/HEERF II (signed into law December 27, 2020) and the American Rescue Plan (ARP) Act of 2021 /HEERF III (signed into law March 11, 2021) provided funds which must be used to provide financial aid grants to ALL students (inclusive of distance education). These funds may be used for any component of the student's cost of attendance, emergency costs that arise due to coronavirus, such as tuition, food, housing, health care (including mental health care), child care and/or exceptional need.

Eligibility Criteria:

Eligible students as defined by the U.S. Department of Education must:

- Enrolled as a student on or after the effective date of the national disaster declaration (March 13, 2020)
- Prioritize students with exceptional need (such as Pell Grant eligible but not required)
- prioritize domestic undergraduate students in awarding these grants, but graduate students are eligible nonetheless

NOTE: In May 2021, the U.S. Department of Education reversed its prior exclusion of DACA and international students retroactive to March 13, 2020.

Application Process:

Eligible students were notified via email on how to complete a questionnaire to certify they incurred expenses (as defined above) and to: a) request the $600 grant be directly paid to the student or b) authorize the school to apply the funds toward a current balance due or upcoming semester. The priority deadline to submit a completed questionnaire to receive a $600 HEERF II grant was midnight June 30, 2021. However, BSHP will continue to solicit student replies in order to provide funding to as many students as possible.
